Please quote the student’s name in full for our verification and email a copy of the bank-in slip or transfer confirmation to tony.l@matrixschools.edu.my.

4. Matrix Private School (MPS) is not responsible for any bank charges incurred in the transfer of the Fee. All bank charges, including those incurred overseas, are the responsibility of the person making the payment.
5. Upon full payment of the Fee, you enter into a contract with Matrix Educare Sdn Bhd (1309395-M) (“MESB”). You are therefore subject to the terms and conditions of the Programme, as set out herein.

Cancellations and Refunds

1. The student will not be permitted to participate in the Programme if payment is not made in full within seven days from the registration date. Late payments entitle us to cancel all relevant registrations.
2. Cancellation is not allowed after payment of the Fee.
3. Request for a refund will be only considered if:-
 - The student can demonstrate extenuating personal circumstances which prohibit them participating in the Programme (For example illness or bereavement). Please note that supporting evidence will be required.
 - For overseas students, a visa application refusal for reasons beyond the student’s control. Please note that this does not include unwarranted late visa applications. Supporting evidence will also be required.
4. Please note that we will require written confirmation of any request for a refund of the Fee.

Programme Cancellation

We may cancel the Programme if we fail to recruit our minimum level of enrolments or if circumstances beyond our reasonable control prevent us from delivering it. In this event, we will refund the full Fee paid by you.

Refund Process

In the event that a refund is successfully requested, you will be reimbursed by the same means of payment that was used to make the payment to us, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise.

Code of Conduct

1. All students attending the Programme shall, at all times, be subject to the School's rules, regulations, policies, codes of conduct, disciplinary procedures, and behavioural standards, as amended from time to time, and shall be treated in the same manner as enrolled School students in respect of discipline, conduct, and compliance. Any breach of the School's rules or policies may result in disciplinary action taken in accordance with the School's established procedures including removal from the Programme and any associated accommodation arrangements.
2. No refunds or discounts will be entertained.
